1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	No	The Board (led by the Chairman) endeavours to objectively evaluate its own performance and the performance of individual Directors on an annual basis. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter (as currently implemented by the Board) sets out the responsibility for recognising and analysing any gaps in the skills and experience of the current Board and any areas for improved performance of the Board as a whole. As the Company is still in its early stage of development, it has not yet undertaken a formal review of the Board’s performance. However, the Board Charter provides for a regular assessment of the Board’s performance and the company will comply with this requirement. Please also refer to the Remuneration and Nomination Charter and Remuneration Policy available via the Company’s website https://www.foundersfirst.group/governance.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Company has a process to periodically evaluate the performance of its senior management. This process has been undertaken for the current financial reporting period.

PRINCIPLE 2 - STRUCTURE THE BOARD TO BE EFFECTIVE AND ADD VALUE
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Yes	The Board has approved charters for the following Committees: a) Remuneration and Nomination Committee; and b) Audit and Risk Committee. A copy of the Charters can be found on the Company' website at https://www.foundersfirst.group/governance. The Board is currently not of a relevant size to justify the formation of separate committees. However, the Board has adopted a Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter which describes the role, composition, functions and responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination committee. Until such time that a separate Remuneration and Nomination Committee is constituted, the Board remains responsible for such matters and will discharge its responsibilities in accordance with the Committee Charter (to the extent applicable). The Board will review this position from time to time as the Company expands and thereby may establish such specific committees to assist it in the discharge of its responsibilities. As the operations of the Company develop, the Board will also reassess the formation of further committees. In accordance with the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, the Board is currently undertaking its own process to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Partially	The Board aims to comprise itself of directors with a broad range of skills, expertise, and experience from a diverse range of backgrounds that is appropriate to the Company and its strategy. The current Board of Directors were chosen to ensure that that it has an appropriate mix of skills and experience to discharge its duties as set out in the Board charter and, specifically, to ensure that the Company has the right skills and experience available to it at this early stage of its lifecycle. Specifically, the Board skills and experience in the informal Board skills matrix included: a) Corporate, ASX and listing experience; b) Health, safety and environment and social responsibility experience; c) Experience establishing and managing a 'start up' company; d) Beer and liquor sales and marketing experience; e) Fast moving consumer goods sales and manufacturing; f) General commerce; g) Finance/Accounting; h) Capital markets and funding; i) Strategy; and j) Talent and human resources skills.

			The Board has not disclosed a formal skills matrix for the financial year ending 30 June 2020 but intends to implement this process as the Company grows and may require a new or additional skills or experience in its Board membership.
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, affiliation or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	The Company's Board currently has 2 independent directors. As the Company is still in the early stage of development, it has 3 executive directors who are also closely involved with the day to day management of the business of the company. The Directors are: Robin Levison – Chair – Independent Director and Chairman (appointed 22/02/2018) John Hood – Non Executive Director – Independent Director (appointed 22/02/2018) Mark Haysman – CEO – Managing Director (appointed 19/11/2018) Stuart Morton – Executive Director (appointed 13/11/2017) Dan Wales – Executive Director (appointed 13/11/2017) With respect to John Hood, he has an interest, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 of the Corporate Governance Principles but the Board does not consider that this compromises his independence for the reasons set out at sections 5.1, 5.4.5, 9.16 and 10.11 of the Replacement Prospectus dated 26 November 2019. The Board notes that the information set out in these sections of the Replacement Prospectus remain accurate.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	As stated above, the majority of the Board is not independent. As the Company is still in the early stage of development, it has 3 executive directors who are also closely involved with the day to day management of the business of the company.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Yes	The roles of Chairman and Managing Director are exercised by two separate individuals (Robin Levison and Mark Haysman respectively). The Chairman is one of the 2 independent directors.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter sets out the responsibility for the Company to establish and facilitate a program for inducting new Directors and providing appropriate professional development opportunities for new and existing Directors to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role effectively. In addition, the Board members who hold qualifications continue to ensure that they undertake continuing professional development.
